BURGLARS.

Homes in McConelisburg Visited.

en love darkness rather ht, one would feel that we feel safest, then are we y night when the family of rove were all enjoying that ul slumber that falls upon good minister's family, the s deceived as to the direc-He thought it was some that it was on the other d the street. Hence he ly gave it a second thought. ne heard some one in the d his mind. d to the fact that the doors ll open. Then he noticed oor littered with burnt s, the drawers of the sidesewing machine, and cuphad been disturbed, and ne had been burglarized. burglars had removed a heard. After removing e, they reached in and own. Through the winentered; and, when the wash house, which is d to the kitchen, they to go through the house dining room a genging, but did not seem a few unimportant arally silverware was left as was, also, an enaining about a dollar alf in change. In a tin found from a dollar and ney, they, of course, took.

to dollars in pennies.

to this they took a

es. Grove's gold spec-

a probability that the ere alarmed, and fled had time to collect easily at their dispourday night, the quiet r, and Mrs. George H. North Second street d. Mrs. Pittman was ed to a strange looking floor near the stove. amination showed that ht visitor had entered back porch; that he ken out of the doughloaf and partly wrape damp cloth, left it e sink, and left the a drink of water, and Alevy's Fort. is getting up probably ouse from a general Somebody will fool until he will suddenly ssistance of our new NEWS to your neighk them to subscribe.

of buckshot.

relieve his anatomy of

GONE TO HOUSEKEEPING.

For several days S. W. Kirk, Esq., has been referred to by the married ladies of West Water street in their husbands' presence, as the model husband of the village. Attorney Kirk has just commenced housekeeping and like all new beginners is very enthusiastic. In his present frame of mind present period of he would much prefer putting up an ful moonlight nights one's obstinate stove-pipe to accepting a libty would be entirely safe, eral fee; shaking and tacking down sometimes happens that carpet is such an apparent hixnry as would make him forego a banquet, and the other innumerable things that the common herd of husbands growl reen twelve and one o'clock at and speak of in unpretty terms are looked upon by him as mere airy trifles the doing of which only adds to his felicity. We hope this will keep going on and on-have the gift of continuance-but we fear it will be like of the night was disturbed the measles, chicken-pox and similar This, Mr. Grove heard, in a lifetime. Seriously, we trust there barreling apples for market. will always be a cricket singing on his hearth.

We regret to learn that Jacob S. Eitemiller, of McKeesport, met with Abbie Mellott, Mrs. John Ott, Jr., the dinner, the bride next appearan accident shortly after his return home from this place that confined down stairs; but, the him to bed for three weeks. He was it that it was some member engaged at the time in "capping" a own family, alarm never telegraph pole when his axe glanced, in, George Garner, Wm. Youse, and shouts of laughter. For tery on Sabbath afternoon, Elder C. inflicting a cut a couple inches in length and considerable depth on his an early hour Tuesday right leg near the knee. He is able to ng, Mr. Grove went down be about again, and while it caused His attention was at once him considerable pain and inconvenience he is congratulating himself on visit to his home in the Cove, ar- on them as they sprang into the the fact that it was not as serious as it might have been.

BENDER-HARR.

On Wednesday, October 18th, Charles n to dawn on his mind that Bender, of McConnellsburg, and Miss ple as one of the most pleasant They will go to Washington, D. Grace Harr, of Big Cove Tannery, days of their lives. As morning C., thence to Philadelphia to visit were United in marriage at the home of the bride's father, William Harr, om the lower sash of one in Ayr township, by Rev. C. M. Smith. vash house windows; and Miss Irene Pott rendered General sun wore a dark cloudy veil, the by the 24th for the reception givn doing this that they let Percifer F. Smith's March on the or- heavens seemed to have gone in en by his mother. taking the first noise Mr. gan and the numerous guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner. THE NEWS, unites with the many friends of the happy couple, in wishing them a long ne mil that held the lower and prosperous journey through life.

HOHMAN'S MEAT MARKET.

Leonard Hohman has moved into his new and commodious building, recently erected for the purpose. He has s doors were concerned. everything as handy as "snuff in a dall, one of Big Cove's most proswe the wash house, rag," now, and so arranged matters perous farmers, to witness the for his customers that they can not for bulksome articles. In by the purse or appetite, Mr Hohman large or small quantities, limited only ard they found the family is a pleasant and liberal man to deal of the earth, were lined with carontaining about a dollar with.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Presbyterian church at this place, next | beautifully decorated with vines | Sabbath evening.

this place, will be resumed next Sun- and the lights turned on. The maville, this county, was the day at 10:30 A. M., and in Hebron church at 2:00 P. M.

The German Baptists (Dunkards) will have preaching at McConnell's n money, which was Dale church, two miles north of Meber 4th and 5th communion services more, was chosen pastor of Market Square Presbyterian church, Harriste down stairs Sunday burg, to succeed Rev. Dr. George B. ing on the arm of her affiance, shaft, which was running at the to Gen. Robert E. Lee, from two part of last week. she doesn't always Stewart. Dr. Smith received the un- William Beatty McDowell. She rate of seven hundred revolutions. Confederate mail carriers. In-'es and her attention animous vote of a meeting of 200 mem- was attired in a beautiful gown of a minute. Almost instantly the formation obtained from these Allegheny county, Pa., returned home timable wife back to McConnellsburg. bers of the church, Rev. J. Ritchie Smith, D. D., Is a graduate of Princeton university and of the Princeton seminary. He is a son of Rev Joseph Smith, D. D., Baltimore, who is one quet of roses. She was quite around the mill screaming, at- Mr. Carl leaves a widow and through the window of the leading members of the Presby- composed and flue looked very tracted theattention of her father, six children-five sons and one pleasant visit, of several weeks, to her terian church in this country and who sweet and lovely. Mr. McDowell who was standing at the door in daughter. Prof. Ed., the oldest, brothers, J. S. Eitemiller, of McKeesis at present a resident of Haltimore.

Rev. H. M. Ash commenced Revival services in the M. E. church, at Knobs-

of nice bread, cut off a West Pennsylvania which closed its The Evangelical Lutheran synod of then he seemed to seventy-fifth convention at Gettysburg mind about the lunch on Monday evening last, embraces the They stood under a handsomely hesitation be jumped to the (Md.,) Daily News. the slice back in its counties of Adams, York, Camber- decorated bell which was suspended ground and clasped his little Mr. Carl was a member in good R. M. Kendall of the Cove. He left land, Franklin and Fulton, contains 144 congregations and 26,000 commun-

Rev. John L. Grove was assisted in OFF FOR MANILLA.

A recent letter received by Philip H. Suyder, of Todd township, from James nestness to the couple that was we are informed, she remains rison's administration. Foreman, well known to many persons before him; and when he present perfectly conscious, and endures The funeral took place from Franklin county, was a pleasant caller houses and residences of the town. in Fulton county, says that at the ed the marriage vows, they were the pain and suffering with the his late residence at Hancock, at The News office on Saturday last. The borough council has contracted date of that letter he was lying with accepted by both with clear, patience of one more advanced in Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. his regiment, the 22d U. S. Infantry, strong voices that were distinctly years. Universal sympathy goes Services conducted by Rev. C.M. near San Francisco, awaiting transports to earry them to the Philippine heard by the whole audience, say- out to the little one and to the Clymer, of the Presbyterian

BIG COVE.

Personal Mention.

Nuptials.

burg Tuesday of last week.

tending Shippensburg State Nor- beautiful. mal, was home a few days last After the congratulations were week for his sister's wedding.

Franklin co., spent a few pleas- ed at a bountifully spread table, Belfast township. crash of a pane of window outbreaks that one catches but once in the Cove. He is over this week served-the kind that our hostess, children, six of whom survive her, were, Misses Rosie Paylor and the bridai party had partaken of David Morton and sister Miss some time the sun had been try- L. Funk officiating.

riving on Friday evening and leav- surrey and drove away. ing for Lawrence county Wednesday morning.

be remembered by a host of peo- 3 o'clock train for Harrisburg. dawned it was not with the bright- the groom's sister, Mrs. Slaymaest prospect of a nice day. The ker, and other friends, and return mourning, and fear was entertained by many that it would shed elegant and elaborate. tears in the form of rain-drops before the day had fulfilled its mission and gone to rest behind the mountains of eternity. Nevertheless, before nine o'clock people were seen wending their way to the mansion of James G. Kenmarriage of one of his daughters. chase the different grades of meats in In half an hour the roads that led (apparently) from the four corners | journeyed across the mountain. riages and buggies—all bound for the same place. The guests all received a hearty welcome,

By 9:55 all had assembled in the Rev. J. L. Grove will preach in the large parlors. The rooms were on one side of the room while the heart-rending accident. py young couple, Rev. S. B. lascerated. Houston, (Associate Presbyterian) While little hope is entertained He served four years as post- Republican.

again led heavenward by Rev. J. Grove, (United Presbyterian) of McConnellsburg, who closed the ceremony with prayer. At its close a great "Amen" from the The McDowell-Kendall en upon the happy pair. Rev. Houston now stepping to the side of the groom, introduced to the Miss Laura Rose who has been andience Mr. and Mrs. McDowell, that we received the death of Mrs. spending the summer with Mrs. whom God had just made man S. B. Houston, returned to Pitts- and wife. Everybody stood in offered the guests were ushered Mrs. J. G. Kendall, knows how to

Morrow Kendall and Miss Nell

Their presents were beautiful Ohio, Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska and make their voyage on the ocean cal happenings of almost three-quarof life, they may pass over its bil-

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Scalp and Hair Torn From the Head of a Little Girl.

Last Saturday afternoon Clara, and golden tinted forest leaves, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. Services in the Reformed church, of The window shutters were closed and Mrs. George Hixson, of Emrelatives of the groom elect stood victim of a most horrible and and on Saturday and Sunday. Novem- preme" as slow, solemn steps connects the engine with the mill age of 59 years. bon, and she carried a large bo She jumped up and, running great battle of Gettysburg. wore the conventional black. His the second story of the mill, is principal of the public schools port, and Geo. M. Eitemiller, of Belle- purpose holding an oyster and swallop countenance betrayed the su- When his eyes beheld the ghast- of Hagerstown, Md., and Frank vue, Allegheny county. preme happiness of his heart. ly spectacle, without a moment's is city editor of the Cumberland ed from the ceiling. A voice was daughter in his arms and carried standing of Warfordsburg Lodge on Wednesday to make the journey now heard breaking the spell of her into the house, when he dis- No. 601 L.O.O. F., of Hancock back to Wilmington on horseback. profound silence, it was the voice covered that the entire scalp was | Camp P. O. S. of A., and of Marguidance and blessing on the hap- part of the face and nose terribly funeral on Tuesday, in a body, of the Cove, spoke with great ear- for the recovery of the child, still, master of Hancock during Haring, "I do." Our thoughts were grief-stricken parents.

AT REST.

Aunt Mollie Hege.

Father above seemed to have fall- Death of Well Known Woman.

It is with feelings of deepest sorrow Mary Pittman Hege, which occurred at her home near Dickey's Station, Franklin county, Pa., on Friday evenexcited awe throughout the en- gin, October 13. The decensed was the James H. Kendall, who is at- tire ceremony, which was very daughter of Joseph Pittman of Timber Ridge, Pulton county, and the wife of the late John Hege of Ayr township. Her age was seventy-four years and Bard McDowell and family, of out to the dining room and seat- one sister, Mrs. George Morton, of ant days last week among friends where a sumptuous dinner was Mrs. Hege was the mother of nine Rev. Jacob Basore, of Iowa: Mrs. John Myers, of Little Cove, and Miss Our county was well represent prepare for a hundred and twen Lottie Basore, at home children of a ed as sight-seers at the Hagers- ty guests. This included quite a former husband, Mr. Daniel Basore, e away, and the sound in ACCIDENT TO J.S. EITEMILLER. town Fair last week. Among the number of friends from Franklin and Mrs. Tobias Glazer, of Webster number from this community county and Philadelphia. When Mills, and Joseph and Harmon Hege of Franklin county-children of a later marriage with Mr. John Hege.

Mrs. Hege was in her usual health and sister Miss Ruie Lake, Roy ed in a brown traveling suit as until the Sunday preceding her death, Kendall, Frank and Charlie Duf- they passed out to the carriage which occurred from hernia from fey, Jas. W. Kendall, Amos Mart- in waiting, amid showers of rice which she had suffered for many years. day.

Jennie, Harry Shaw and Thomas ing to peep through its veil, but Until within a few years, the home now the clouds were dispeiled and of Mrs. Hege, or "Aunt Mollie" as Findley Kendall made a flying the sun was shining in all its glory she was affectionately called, was in the "Corner," although few women were more extensively and favorably known throughout the county.

She was a life-long member of the Johnston escorted them to Fort Baptist church and by close study, at-Thursday of last week will long Loudon where they boarded the tained a wonderful knowledge of the

> To her hisband she was a faithful dren a loying and self-sacrificing mother practicing the severest self denial for their educational advancement. As a neighbor, she gave of herself most ungrudgingly, never un- the family of Abraham Runyan, in heeding the call day or night, to com-The bride's trousseau was both fort the sick, or relieve the sufferingoftimes taking the place of a physician until he could arrive.

Her feet can on willing errands, and and useful as well as very numer- her hands did cheerful service in humons. They came from different blest places, through love to Christ parts of Pennsylvania, New York, and his helpless poor—cheerful and witty in conversation-a good talker and possessing a remarkable memory. She had a good fund of information, It is to be hoped that as they and could recall with precision the loters of a century.

We extend to her children our tenderest sympathy in this great loss of their mother, who was, in truth, one of nature's noble women, for scarcely do we find in one person so many adniously combined.

CAPTURED DISPATCHES FROM JEFF DAVIS.

Man Who Helped Win Battle Of Gettysburg.

Daniel A. Carl, a well known last week. relatives of the other party in the Mr. Hixson owns and operates citizen of Hancock, Md., and a contract occupied the opposite a steam grist mill at Emmaville, brother of the late William Carl, of Licking Creek township, who is on the Roland Sipes farm 2; miles rthe can that contain- Connellsburg, commencing Sunday, Oc- side. At the appointed hour, ten An iron shaft about two inches in of Warfordsburg, died at his clerking in the Harrisburg Provision tober 20th, and continuing all week; o'clock, "quietness reigned su diameter and several feet long home on Monday morning, at the store, arrived home on a visit on Sat-were heard coming from the hall. proper. This shaft, crossing the He served three years in the Messrs. James H. Kendall and pathway leading to and from the 6th U. S. Cavalry during the war gret to learn, is on the sick list. We given the front and store-room of the Thomas McDowell, followed by mill, it was customary for Mr, of the Rebellion, and had many ville, on Monday evening last, which Misses Mary H. Kendalland Mary Hixson and the children to pass thrilling experiences. On the good humor, will be continued for an indefinite pe- McDowell, entered the room and under it. As Clara was passing first day of July, 1861, at Greentook their places with the friends; under the shaft her hair, which castle under Captain John Dahl-Rev. Dr. J. Ritchie Smith, Balti- then came the lady who was yet was plaited, by some means green, he captured important min shimer, in this place, returned to Miss Laura Logan Kendall, lean- caught and wrapped around the dispatches faom Jefferson Davis her home in Waynesboro, the latter white organdie, trimmed in nar-child was hurled around in the dispatches materially assisted with Mrs. Kate Comerer, on Saturday row ruffles edged with satin rib air and thrown several feet away. the Union generals in winning the with her mother and friends, and assisted in the last sad rites.

church.

PERSONAL.

a pleasant call on Saturday last.

M. D. MATHIAS, of Hustontown, called at THE NEWS office while in town Wednesday.

MR. AND MRS. R. A. SHARP, of Pleasant Ridge, spent Wednesday at McConnellsburg.

HELSER COOK and John Stoner, of Sylvan, started West on Tuesday: destination, Kansas,

DR. SWARTZWELDER, of Needmore, dropped in to see us a minute, while in town Wednesday. D. W. CROMER, of Fort Littleton, is serving as a United States juror at Pittsburg this week. MRS. FINLY JOHNSTON and baby left Tuesday morning for a two weeks'

Chambersburg over Sunday.

stay in western Pennsylvania.

MRS. MARGARET MCCONNELL, of and other places. Mercersburg, is visiting her brothers, he Messrs. Henders, of this place.

DR. J. E. KEMPTER, of St. Thomas, and Miss Grace Gupton, were the guests of Mrs. S. M. Cook on Tuess on Tuesday last. Mr. Whiter is As-

JOHN W. EVANS, our jeweler, is visiting his bome in Virginia. Charlie Stinger is "making the wheel go accompanied by his mother-in-law, Mrs. R. W. Swope, was in town yes. MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. HAVES, of this place, who were spending a few home Monday. MRS. SARAH PITTMAN, of this place, family of Mr. J. Cal Comerer in young people. Thompson township. Annie, of Burnt Cabins, were visiting liting at Clear Ridge.

this place last week. MRS. WILLIAM F. SELSOR and her vacation, son Charles, of Mercersburg, were vis-the first of the week. MISS JENNIE LAYTON, of Gapsville, Pa., was a Bedford visitor last week Miltou, Pa. Mrs. Cooper is suffering and attended the Bedford Fair while there. - Everett Press.

MRS. HENRY W. SCOTT and Mrs. Samuel Kelley spent part of last week REPORT OF AKERSVILLE PRIvisiting the family of V. H. Prosser, at Williamsport, Md.

GEORGE SLOAN, of Buffalo, N. Y., left on Monday last for his home, after day of first month, beginning Septemhaving spent several days with his ber 18, and ending October 13, 1899; brothers and sisters in this place. JAMES KENDALL, JR., a member of mirable traits of character so harmo- the Senior class at Shippensburg, Ott, William Conner, Howard Conner,

W. M. HANN, the auctioneer, of press his appreciation of our paper. FRANK BOOR, and family, of Three Springs, Huntingdon county, were visiting the family of W. M. Hann, in Licking Creek township, a few days - JOHN SIPES, son of T. Irwin Sipes, urday Inst.

DR. DALLAS BIRNHARDT, WO PEhope to see the Doctor about again with renewed health and in his usual

MRS. EFFIR ST.CLAIR, who was visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Benja-last, and will remain for a short time her home in this place, after a very

FINLEY J. KENDALL, of Wilmington, Pa., spent a few days during the past week with his parents. Mr. and Mrs.

JAMES O. McCAVITT, the popular state. r. Pittman became Communion services, last Sabbath, of Rev. J. G. Rose, (Presbyterian) torn from her head, one car sev-tinsburg, W. Va., Post G. A. R. hotel man of Gettysburg, Adams countries of the communion services, last Sabbath, of Rev. J. G. Rose, (Presbyterian) tring the night and by Rev. Horace E. Freeman, of Me. of Mercersburg, imploring divine ered and the skin of the larger All these societies attended his sy, spent Monday in Everett calling on old acquaintances. Mr. McCavitt has leased his hotel in Gettysburg and is looking for a new location. - Everett

ROBERT STOUTEAGLE, who is enhis work.

DR. J. F. BARTON, Vice Principal of Cumberland Valley State Normal School, who was detained in Minnesp-H. S. Polik, of Knobsville, made us olls, Minn., by sickness returned out Saturday. The students gave him a MRS. B. W. PECK is spending a cordial welcome. He has fully recovweek visiting friends in Blair county, ered and has taken up his duties, much to the gratification of his many friends. Shippensburg News.

ELHOTT RAY, of Big Cove Tannery, took occasion while attending the Hagerstown Fair, to run down to Williamsport, Md., and visit our friend Vincent Prosser, proprietor of the principal hotel of that place. Mr. Ray speaks in high terms of Mr. Prosser's qualifications as a hotel keeper which keeps his house filled up with guests.

REV. AND MRS. H. N. FREEMAN, of McAlevy's Fort, Huntingdon county, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Grove of this place over last Subbath. Mr. Freeman assisted Mr. Grove in the communion services at the U. P. church on Sunday. Mrs. Freeman tay in western Pennsylvania. was formerly Miss Sallie Taggart of the Cove. They left Monday morning Rummel, of Todd township, were in for a somewhat extended visit to friends in Hagerstown, Washington, ED WHITER and wife, of Pittsburg, who spent several days with Mrs. Whiter's sister, Mrs. Dr. A. D. Dalbey, left for their home in Pittsburg, sistant Train Master of the P. C. C. & St. L. railway with headquarters at Pittsburg. On the 1st of October he obtained a leave of absence of fifteen days and he and Mes. Whiter made a tour up through New York state visit-S. H. MELLOTT, of Piensant Ridge, ing Niagara Falls and other points of interest. Dr. and Mrs. Dalbey gave a very pleasant reception in honor of their guests last Friday evening.

ARTHUR FRANTZ, of Waynesboro, spent a few days in our midst. Mr. days with friends at Everett returned Frautz holds a position in the office of the Frick Company, and is a very agreeable gentleman that made himwife and wise counselor-to her chil- is spending a couple of weeks with the self exceedingly popular with our

DR. F. R. STEVENS and family, of JOHN MILLER, wife and daughter, this place, are spending the week vis-

> REV. C. M. SMITH and wife refurned home on Sunday from a two weeks'

A TELEGRAM received at this place iting the Misses Selsor, in this place, last Tuesdry, announced the serious illness of Mrs. George W. Cooper, formerly of this place, at her home in with malarial fever. Miss Mary Demlek, her sister, is now with her.

MARY SCHOOL.

s of pupils in attendance every Mand Akers, May Akers, Norn Schenck, Julia Conner, Ethel Jackson, spent a day or two at home attending Blaine Hixon, Carl Akers, Ira Duvall and Lum. Duvall.

Promotions to Akersville Grammar Licking Creek township, dropped into school: Viola Hixson, Rosa Williams the NEWS office the other day to ex- and Hunter Jackson. Number enrolled, 35. Percentage of attendance, 93. G. I. COVALT.

Teacher.

SALE REGISTER.

On Thursday, October 26, 1809, J C Hollenshead will sell at his residence south of Harrisonville, horses, cattle, farming implements, household goods.

Messes, Steak and Thompson, have Stouteagle building a dressing of paint which adds very much to the appearance of the property.

Thomas Hamill, who recently remodeled his residence purchased from Daniel Grissinger, on East Water street, moved up from Webster Mills on Monday last. Tommie has everything nice and comfortable, about him Miss Mary Edula, of Wilkensburg, now, and we we come him and his es-

> Dr. Ed Smith left a ten-pound corn husker with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cutchall, Wednesday morning, Thompson Peck is still very low with

The McConnellsburg Cornet Band supper up at the old white church Saturday evening, Oct. 28th. Patronize

We are under obligations to Mrs. M. Cromer, of this place, for two nice tigs from her trees. They were something of a curiosity as they were the first we had ever tasted in their normal

Saxton is to be lighted with electricity within sixty days. The Herald says the Huntingdon and Broad Top. Railroad company has closed a contract for a 60-are and incandescent plant, to furnish light for its shops, offices and yards in that place and to gaged in teaching the school at Upton, furnish lights for the streets, business He returned to his duties on Monday for ten large are street lights, with the morning. Mr. Stouteagle is very pop- privilege of taking more, at a very ular with the pupils and patrons of the reasonable figure. The plant is exschool, and is himself delighted with pected to be in position in about thir-